Wellspring Interfaith Social Services Welcomes New Board Members

Fort Wayne, IN – Wellspring Interfaith Social Services welcomes its new board members, who began their three-year term in January 2021. Board members serve one and may opt to serve an additional term if desired.

New board members include:

- Rachel Tobin-Smith, new board president, retired CEO of SCAN and co-founder of AVOW
- Justin Uffelman, senior sales executive, C.H. Robinson
- Jeneé Johnson, program manager, Junior Achievement of Northern Indiana
- Dr. Scott Miller, retired ophthalmologist
- Steve Smethers, Fort Wayne Community Schools Career Academy
- Mitchell Berry, attorney, Carson LLP

Wellspring Interfaith is a nonprofit that has served at-risk populations in the inner city and beyond for over 51 years. During the pandemic, Wellspring has expanded its food bank program via Wellspring on Wheels to reach more people in need.
